LEON WOLFSKY, white male, 6', 30 years, 165, brown hair, National Chairman of the LYL. WOLFSKY spoke on the unemployment of three million six hundred thousand unemployed individuals of whom 10% were youth under 25, and claimed that a statistician's report described anywhere from 6% unemployed should be considered a critical area. PETTIS PERRY, Negro, male, 5'6", white hair, 65 years old, well known CP member. own request, interviewed by SA'S PAUL L. BRINTON and ROBERT F. ROYAL on 3-29-54) advised on 3-29-54 that she met EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN during 1950 while he was residing with MAX FINESTONE at 418 East 9th Street, NYC. T-1 stated that she visited the apartment of WEINSTEIN-FINESTONE [REDACTED] 70

[REDACTED] This visit was probably during an evening and they all had dinner together in their apartment and thereafter spent the evening visiting together. (Possibly on this occasion T-1 met DANIEL MARIEN and two girls who also lived in the 418 East 9th Street apartment building. MARIEN was dating one of these girls.)

T-1 further advised that she attending one or two parties at the WEINSTEIN-FINESTONE apartment during the later part of the summer of 1950. These parties were of a social nature and there were other friends of WEINSTEIN and FINESTONE. She was unable to furnish the names of any others who were present inasmuch as they were friends of WEINSTEIN and FINESTONE. [REDACTED] 70

T-1 recalled that WEINSTEIN belonged the Tompkins Square YPA club and on one occasion she attended a dance sponsored by this club. WEINSTEIN was Organizational Secretary of this YPA club or held some similar post. He also was organizing the dances sponsored by this club. She explained that they rented a hall in the Tompkins Square area for a meeting place and for dances. [REDACTED] 70

Concerning FINESTONE, [REDACTED] his parents, HUGH & ANN CHAFFIN who lived on a farm out from Ithaca, N.Y. She believes that they were part of an ALP Movie group in Ithaca. The CHAFFIN'S also would make available their living room for the purpose of having meetings of the Cornell LYL meetings during the 1950-51 period. They were also members of the ALP in Ithaca. T-1 met FINESTONE independently as stated above.

T-1 had heard from hearsay that FINESTONE was at one time leader of the CP Student group at Cornell University. This leadership would have been prior to 1950-51 period.

T-1 may be classified as of known reliability, and information should be suitably covered.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : SAC, New York

FROM : CHESTER A. REILLY, SA (65-15773)

SUBJECT: JAMES WEINSTEIN
SM-C

Date: 4/16/54

1255

Mrs. HAZEL LEVY KLEINBERG who resides with her mother, Mrs. HARRY LEVY, 935 Riverside Drive, was interviewed at the NYO on 3/20, 25 and 31/54 by SA's FRANK C. KEIER and CHESTER A. REILLY. She had previously applied for passport to rejoin her husband in Brazil and had given the State Department an affidavit admitting Communist Party membership while a student at Cornell University.

Mrs. KLEINBERG in a signed statement dated 3/31/54 admitted joining the AYD in the spring of 1945 and membership in the Student Section of the Communist Party at Cornell University from the end of 1945 or early 1946 until June, 1949.

Mrs. KLEINBERG reviewed photographs in Cornell Year Books and identified 34 persons as being attendants at meetings of the Student Section of the Communist Party at Cornell. She said she could not say they were members because she had not seen their Communist Party cards but assumed they were members because they attended the meetings. Although numerous meetings were held at the apartment of Mrs. KLEINBERG she was not able to give specific information on most persons and was unable to give dates or places of meetings where she had seen them. She thought many of these persons had originally lived in New York City.

The statement signed by Mrs. KLEINBERG is being retained as an exhibit in 100-112435.

The following information appears in said statement on the above subject:

JAMES WEINSTEIN was a regular attendant at meetings of the Student Section of the Communist Party at Cornell University. He was from New York City and a member of the class of 1949. He was very wealthy and was ashamed of it. For some reason the rest of us could not understand, he had been exempt from attending meetings. He had been a member of the Student Section of the Communist Party some time before we became aware that he was a member and attended meetings.

She assumed attendance at meetings meant membership but she did not see party cards & hesitated to call them members. after Weinstein started attending meetings & he had a recollection that for some reason he had been associated with CP in the past but had been exempt from attending meetings.

Memo
NY 100-95240

When initially interviewed on 9/8/54, [REDACTED] supplied a list of names of individuals she knew to be connected with the Communist movement. This list is maintained in [REDACTED] b7d

Set out below is information regarding [REDACTED] knowledge of subversive activity, especially LYL activity. This memorandum is the original report of this information. Care should be taken to paraphrase any information attributed to PSI that is disseminated and her reliability should be characterized as unknown, but as a person who has supplied much verified and reliable information. b7d

ORGANIZATION OF THE LYL ON LOWER
EAST SIDE, NEW YORK CITY

[REDACTED] stated the Lower East Side LYL was, to her knowledge, organized in 1949 and at that time had consisted of one unit. This unit met on E. 4th St., NYC, between Ave. C and D in a basement apartment of a tenement building. The unit continued to meet in the basement apartment for a period of about seven months, at which time it began to meet in the private residences of members. b7d

Later the Lower East Side LYL split into two clubs, which PSI described as follows:

1. Lower East Side that met at 92 Pitt St., NYC. [REDACTED]

2. Upper Lower East Side Club [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] met on E. 4th St., NYC, between Ave. C and D. [REDACTED] b7d

Memo
NY 100-95240

These two LYL clubs subsequently began to hold their meetings at private residences. In approximately November 1951, the two clubs split into four clubs that were broken down according to geographical order or according to the activity of members. PSI recalled that one group for a time was composed of young mothers.

All meetings of these LYL club units were held in private residences. These four clubs were described as follows:

1. [REDACTED]
2. [REDACTED]
3. [REDACTED]
4. [REDACTED]

Subsequently, the four clubs merged back to the original two clubs and they were organized in this manner [REDACTED] PSI had no knowledge of the present organization of the LYL in the Lower East Side of NYC and expressed the opinion that activity had practically ceased. b7d

[REDACTED] advised that while in the Club Brodsky of the Tompkins Square Section of the CP, Lower East Side, NYC, younger members were requested to give their time to the LYL. [REDACTED]

b7d

Memo
NY 100-95240

[redacted] recalled there was no required
registration and, [redacted] knowledge, the LYL organization was rather loose with periods of inactivity. [redacted]

SA WILLIAM G. LINEHAN 12-14

MANHATTAN LYL
IS-C

On 10-26-55, [redacted] furnished SAs John P. Thomas and Edward J. Mulholland with a ticket indicating a new LYL club had opened at 15 Ave. A 172
NYU.

On 11-8-55 Mr. ABRAHAM REINHARD, proprietor of a store on the first floor at 15 Avenue A advised SA Martin J. HACKETHAL AND the writer that a new club had recently rented space on the second floor but that he was not acquainted with the names of any of the tenants. Mr. REINHARD advised that the owner of the building was Mr. HARRY SCHECHNER, 34 Allenwood Road, Great Neck, L.I., N.Y. telephone GR 2-7034.

On 11-28-55 the writer telephonically attempted to contact Mr. Schechner to make an appointment but he was not at home. Mr. Schechner telephonically contacted the writer at work on 11-29-55 and advised that he would prefer to give any desired information over the phone and so pertinent information was obtained.

Mr. SCHECHNER advised that he is the owner of the building located at 15 Avenue A, NYC. He advised that on 7-8-55 he had rented the first floor loft at the above premises to the LABOR YOUTH LEAGUE, after first checking with the National office on W 23rd St. to ascertain that they were a bona fide organization. Mr. SCHECHNER advised that the organization was listed in the phone book so he had rented the room effective as of 7/15/55.

Mr. SCHECHNER advised that the room was rented by JAMES WEINSTEIN, 101 St. Marks Pl., NYC, telephone CA 8-0488 whom he described as 5'10", medium build, wears glasses, under 25 and nice looking. SCHECHNER advised that this was the only contact that he had had with WEINSTEIN.

Mr. SCHECHNER further advised that the rent was paid on a monthly basis by check by Miss HARRIET RUSS, 155 NORFOLK St., NYC, telephone GR 7-0888. SCHECHNER advised that he had never met Miss RUSS but that the checks were signed by her. He could not recall the name of the bank on which the checks were drawn.

The indices of the NY office were negative on ABRAHAM REINHARD and reflected references identifiable with HARRY SCHECHNER.

From the information furnished by SCHECHNER it appears that RUSS and WEINSTEIN hold an official capacity in an LYL club. It is recommended that a file be opened on RUSS and assigned for investigation.

ReNYairtel dated 1/11/56.

On 1/11/56, [REDACTED]

NYCPD, advised SAS CHARLES J. GARVEY and WILLIAM G. LINEHAN that a complaint had been made on 1/9/56, by Mr. I. SCHECHNER, owner of a building located at 15 Ave. A, NYC, that on the previous day unknown persons had broken into a room on the second floor at said address and had broken a partition and destroyed various furnishings. The Police Department report indicated it was a case of "malicious mischief". b7d

According to [REDACTED] SCHECHNER advised that the second floor room had "formerly" been used as a social club. b7d

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] NYCPD, was assigned to the case, but was then unavailable. b7d

On 1/11/56, JOHN GRIESBACKER, 543 East 5th Street, NYC, advised SAS GARVEY and LINEHAN that he is presently unemployed but acts as custodian for the "Coronet Club", third floor, 15 Ave. A, of which he is a member. GRIESBACKER stated that the room on the second floor at 15 Ave. A had been broken into early Sunday (1/8/56) morning. He stated that on 1/7/56, the club on the second floor which goes by the name of "Youth Council League" had had a party at which 40 or 50 persons were present.

GRIESBACKER advised that he had dropped in at the party and noticed that books by MARX were among the literature in the room. GRIESBACKER said that he was unaware of the identities of any of the "Youth Council League" members.

He stated that when he had gone to his club on Sunday afternoon, he noticed the door to the second floor room was off the hinges and the room itself was in disorder. GRIESBACKER advised that he did not know who might have damaged the clubroom as he did not know any of the members and had not discussed the matter with any of them.

On 1/12/56, [REDACTED] telephonically contacted SA LYNNEHAN and advised that while the incident had occurred on the second floor at 15 Ave. A on 1/8/56 was written up as "malicious mischief", it was actually a burglary inasmuch as a record player and approximately 25 records had been reported stolen in addition to the property damage. b7d

[REDACTED] said that while investigating he was able to obtain only the name of ARTHUR KANTOR, 173 Sullivan, NYC, as those present were very "cozy" and did not like to answer questions. He advised that the name of the club was reported to him to be the "New Council Social Club". b7d

It is noted that the indices of the NYO contain no reference to ARTHUR KANTOR.

On 1/20/56, [REDACTED] telephonically contacted SA HERBERT K. STALLINGS and advised that he had been to the second floor club at 15 Ave. A the evening of 1/19/56, and had interviewed JAMES WEINSTEIN, 101 St. Marks Place, NYC, b7d and HARRIET RUSS, 155 Norfolk St., NYC.

[REDACTED] advised that they were among the 40 or 50 persons present at the club on that date, and that they advised him the name of the club was the "Lower East Side Youth League". [REDACTED] stated that the average age of these persons was 25 to 30. He further advised that he did not notice any mimeograph or printing machines in the room. b7d

[REDACTED] advised that he did not contemplate any additional investigation concerning the complaint received on 1/9/56. b7d

New York County

[REDACTED] that a meeting of the Lower East Side [REDACTED] was held at 15 Avenue A, NYC, [REDACTED]

JAMES WEINSTEIN [REDACTED] b7d

[REDACTED] b7d
The following investigation was conducted by SAs EDWARD M. ANCIN, WILLIAM J. DANIELSON, EARL W. BAKER and WILLIAM C. MARTIN.

The above Agents conducted a physical surveillance in the vicinity of 15 Avenue A, NYC, at 7:55 PM on 3/15/56.

At 10:40 PM on 3/15/56, SA HERBERT K. STALLINGS observed approximately 15 individuals leave 15 Avenue A, and stated four of these individuals were entering a red Nash Rambler, license plate believed to be New Jersey E 110, driven by BOB ROCKLIN.

This automobile was observed by SAs ANCIN, DANIELSON, BAKER, and MARTIN to have four occupants, one male and three females.

The Nash stopped in the vicinity of 342 E. 9th St. and a female, white, 22-25 years, 5' 6", 125 lbs., slim build, wearing a light colored coat, was observed by SA BAKER and DANIELSON to enter an apartment house at 342 E. 9th St., NY.

The Nash then proceeded to 101 St. Marks Place, NYC, and SAs MARTIN and ANCIN observed a Negro, female, age 23-26, weight 150-155, black hair, dark complexion, enter an apartment house at this address. This Negro, female departed from the apartment house after approximately three minutes and reentered the Nash Rambler.

The surveillance on this Nash was continued for a period of time and subsequently dropped for security reasons.

It is felt by the writer that the white female who entered 342 E. 9th St. might possibly be identical to NAOMI BARKO, NY file 100-124034, and it is recommended this case be reopened to determine BARKO's current activities.

On this same date SAs HAROLD M. BATES, KARL R. BUCKMAN, JAMES BLAKEMORE, and CHARLES R. MC KINNON observed an unidentified man and woman leave 15 Avenue A and enter a 1954 tan and maroon Dodge Sedan, NY license 40 22-47. BMV, NYC, advised on 3/16/56 that this car was registered to JAMES WEINSTEIN, NYC.

Another unidentified man was observed by these Agents to leave 15 Avenue A and enter a 1954 Ford Sedan, NY license 1N 89-04. BMV, NYC, advised on 3/16/56 that this car was registered to STANLEY LUBKA "no address".

In addition to the above, SA STALLINGS identified ABNER BERRY and JAMES WEINSTEIN as among those persons entering and leaving 15 Avenue A during the evening of 3/15/56.

NALIBOW The source advised that HERB (believed to be HERB MALYBOW) contacted EARL (DURHAM) at LYL Headquarters, NYC. After briefly speaking to EARL, HERB then spoke to HARVEY (believed to be HARVEY COHEN). HERB stated that he was calling from Rockville Center and wanted to know where "tonights meeting is to be." HARVEY stated that the meeting was "at the Little Ones." HERB stated that he did not know where that was and HARVEY explained that the meeting would be at 8:30 and he then agreed to meet HERB at Second Ave., and Tenth St., at 8:00 PM to take him there.

Later that afternoon, HERB (NALIBOW) contacted BELLE at LYL Headquarters. HERB asked BELLE (GRICE) if "LEON (Believed to be LEON WOFPSY) had brought her the money." BELLE stated that he had. HERB then asked if she had heard from "Little Jimmy" (believed to be JAMES WEINSTEIN) to which BELLE answered in the negative. HERB then instructed BELLE to give JIMMY the money when he came in. HERB then went on to state that he was finished in Rockville Center and would not be in that afternoon. BELLE asked him if he picked up "that address," and HERB answered stating that he had worked out with HARVEY where he was to meet him that evening and it would not be necessary for him to give ~~her~~ the address.

EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN, was:

JAMES WEINSTEIN, JIMMY
WEINSTEIN

ReNY Let to Newark dated, 6-20-56 and Newark letter to New York 8-7-56

The title in this case has been changed to reflect the subject's additional alias of JIMMY WEINSTEIN, by which name he is known to [redacted] (protect by T symbol) who has furnished reliable information in the past. b7d

The character of this investigation has been changed to Security Matter. The change has been made because the subject's known activities since 1951 have been primarily confined to the Labor Youth League (LYL) and have not indicated any apparent involvement by the subject in Soviet espionage.

It is noted that this case was originally characterized as Espionage on the basis of information furnished during 1951 which alleged that the subject was connected with WILLIAM PERL and MAXWELL FINESTONE, reported to have been members of the JULIUS ROSENBERG Espionage Network. Investigation subsequent to 1951 failed to develop any additional information regarding the subject's possible "ROSENBERG connection".

[redacted] previously characterized, advised on 12-7-56, that information has come to his attention to the effect, that the subject is no longer employed; that he recently inherited two million dollars; that he is now going to school. b7d

The Newark Office is requested to contact its source at the Emerson Radio and Phonograph Company 14th and Cole Streets, Jersey City, New Jersey and determine subject's employment status.

In the event the subject has resigned his job, it is requested that the Newark Office determine from his employment record whether he listed any school that he was going to attend.

This interview was conducted on instructions set forth in a lead in captioned case to interview LOUIS KESSLER, 15-14 135th Ave., Ozone Park, NY, inasmuch as this name was reported as a mail contact of captioned subject in December 1953, (100-81570-333,366).

DE 18298

On March 1, 1957, DE 554-S, who has furnished reliable information in the past, supplied SA JOHN A. LELWICA and SA CHARLES W. GREGORY with a typewritten report concerning [REDACTED] National LYL Convention held in New York City from February 23, through 24, 1957.

Copies of this memorandum have been designated for the offices [REDACTED] and for the master files of those individuals described by the Informant. b7D

Those individuals whose names are followed by an asterisk were not in attendance at the convention but were mentioned by the Informant in the report.

Copies of this memo were also designated for Albany, Boston, Minneapolis, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh in that each of these offices is believed to have reported on the LYL in the past.

The Informant's report is set out verbatim below:

"The National Convention of the LABOR YOUTH LEAGUE, meeting for the two day period February 23-24, 1957, was held at the Broadway Central Hotel (the offices of the New Challenge), 673 Broadway and Fourth, Room 509.

"A head-count by HARVEY COHEN, who also collected the delegates fees, revealed that over a two day period, a total of forty-seven people attended this convention, although this number, he added, varied slightly from one day to the other. The California delegate, for instance, left on "Saturday evening, casting his vote for dissolution, by proxy, through EARL DURHAM. Of the forty-seven individuals present, there were as HARVEY COHEN further indicated in his financial report, seven districts represented (this besides New York City). This meant that a sum total of twenty-seven votes could be cast, although not all these districts were fully represented at the convention. JIM JONES, for instance, representing New York City, was able to cast a total of six votes (this included his own) for the dissolution of the LEAGUE.

"The personnel [REDACTED] b7d

[REDACTED] during this two day period, is as follows. C-C (A Negress. She explained that she was a shop worker. C-C is portly, full of good humor), ROZ (A thinish White Woman), AL (possibly of Mexican origin. AL during a conversation Saturday evening told me he was chairman of one of the two LYL Clubs in Chicago), and HANK BERRY (Negro), were the delegates from CHICAGO. CHICAGO had a total of six votes to cast. [REDACTED] b7d

"MARV ENGEL (one time resident of Flint and Detroit), and CORA (A Negress inclined to chattering at the drop of a pin), were the delegates from WISCONSIN. [REDACTED] b7d

"The NEW YORKERS present [REDACTED] b7d

EARL DURHAM, HARVEY COHEN, JULIE LOWITT, JUDY TREISMAN, TEDDY (white, balding, moustached, with glasses, and heavy set cigar smoking man), HERBIE (short, thinish, pleasant looking, receding hairline with splashes of grey breaking through)

DE 10 8298

"JIM JONES (Negro). JUDY TREISMAN is a student at Columbia, is white, and at one time was liked by [REDACTED] MARK SOLOMON. JULIE, TEDDY, and HERBIE were continually referred to as being "Founding fathers of the LABOR YOUTH LEAGUE." Also attending the convention (on Sunday only) were three students representing City College, [REDACTED] b7d

"The State of WASHINGTON had three official delegates, whose names I cannot remember. However, the spokesman for the group is a shortish fellow with glasses (5'6" I would guess), sandy haired. He is one of seven children, all of whom are LABOR YOUTH LEAGUE members. He hails from Seattle, and I believe he is the chairman of one of the Washington Clubs. His companion at the convention was a sixteen year old girl, although I cannot supply you with anymore information. If memory serves, MIKE MILLER called her 'LUCY.' I know nothing of the other delegate.

"The state of NEW JERSEY had two delegates at the convention. The spokesman for this state is a fattish fellow, rather sloppily dressed. His name is HANK, and in Newark his occupation is that of auto mechanic. His companion, a white male, was not more than fifteen years of age, short, pimply and thin.

"The lone delegate from CALIFORNIA was MERTON GOOSHIS. SOLOMON later confirmed that MERTON is a transplanted Brooklynite. The California delegate lives in San Francisco. His sandy hair is closely cropped, he stands about five-six, and is inclined to be described as 'fat.'

"BOB ALBERT was the sole delegate from the state of Connecticut. BOB is once more living in Brooklyn, and since the fall (it was explained by MAKK) has been the direct cause of two broken engagements. I don't personally see why, he has a low hairline (black thick hair), stoutish, and sloppily dressed.

"The state of OHIO had one representative, GEORGE a former boxer (small sandy-reddish haired fellow) and one unofficial delegate, his wife SANDY. SANDY, a one time Detroit (Wayne University Student) had been married to STAN GOETZ.

"There was one delegate from BALTIMORE. His name is FRANK. FRANK is possibly non-Jewish, he is married, and is a heavy-set fellow, wearing tweeds both days I saw him.

"Upper NEW YORK STATE had one delegate. TEDDY is a short balding fellow with glasses, youngish, who speaks in a halting manner, choosing his words carefully. He made a great deal of sense, more than other speakers.

"The WEINSTIENS, about to become parents, are a young Jewish couple. JIMMY is attending classes at Columbia, post graduate work, and hopes to become a lawyer. b7d

JIMMY WEINSTIEN at one time in the past was mixed up with the FBI. JIMMY had fallen under the influence of an unscrupulous room-mate who was supplying the FBI with information of sorts. JIMMY soon was doing the same. Some time later he recanted and is now again in the Progressive Movement.

"THE FIRST SESSION - 23 February 1957

"A procedure was set up during the opening moments of the Convention. EARL DURHAM would read the main report, this dealing with the History of the LABOR YOUTH LEAGUE. We would then break for a one hour lunch period, return at two o'clock and have a discussion for the remainder of the day. If further discussion was needed, we would meet again on Sunday, the time set at eleven.

"I remember only a few of the statements verbatim of EARL's Report. 'Under attack,' He said, 'We spoke out and did not close up--- We were against Jim Crow

"and for Negro-White Unity." Later on, 'One of our concepts was to develop interest in Marxism.' But because of certain developments, the League's unsuccessful fight for legality, the twentieth Congress, it became impossible to continue. It was agreed that because of the Mc Carren Act, this hanging over EARL's head, no mention would be made of any other organization. The lawyers told EARL to dissolve the LEAGUE and that to discuss the forming of another organization during this convention would be unlawful. EARL warned that this would be out of the question, no delegate was to attempt to form any type of association at this meeting. If anyone had such plans, he suggested that they talk about it over coffee, out of the building, and include him OUT. Therefore a restriction was placed on the delegates. They could not discuss any other group to be formed, nor could they disclose the name or type of organization in which they now served. The purpose of this convention was to dissolve. After EARL's report, we broke for lunch.

"During the moments in which people silently shuffled out of the room I saw LEON LETWIN, camera in hand. LEON was taking pictures for historical memory. LEON, it was explained by MARK only wanted to record this convention on film for historical purposes.

[REDACTED]

"At the beginning of the afternoon session, a chairman was elected. MARV ENGIL accepted the post only after LEON LETWIN, MARK SOLOMON, and HANK BERRY had refused to chair the session. The discussion for the most part was a haltering one. At times there was dead silence in the room, no one having anything new to add, to expound, or delve into.

"The content of the various speeches varied from direct attacks on EARL, 'the founding fathers,' and at times a confused expression of grave concern as to what is in order now with the League about to become a thing of the past.

DE 100-18298

"HANK, New Jersey, spoke about the League and the concept of the Vanguard Role. Had the League played a Vanguard Role? In the playing of this Vanguard Role was the League aping the Communist Party? If so, we were in effect a 'Youth Arm of the Communist Party' and nothing else? HANK felt our purpose in the LYL had been to train and enlighten the Youth of America to Socialism. How successful had been this accomplished? If the League, in effect, did model itself after the Communist Party, we did create our own obstacles, which in the end saw our defeat.

"The Seattle Washington delegate spoke in terms of the positive experiences of the past months. There is, in the Washington Club, an increase in membership, renewed activity and a 'new approach.' This delegate criticised the National Office for their poor communication with the Washingtonians. It wasn't until two months ago that the Washington Club had heard of the proposed disbandment. He ended his speech by stating that he was for the continuation of the League and believed that if we sat down and really put our heads together we could 'lick the problem.'

"MERTON (California) spoke about the economic factors of this Country as being uncompatible to Socialist growth. He agreed with EARL's statement that the 20th Congress did get us all balled up. But for the principle point, his speech was concerned with the economic factors. MERTON held that America being one of the wealthiest countries in the world, with such a high living standard, had much to offer youth. The wealth that this country offered the youth was too much, and proved to be the main factor in the lack of Socialist growth. The objective desire to gain wealth, power, etc., overpowered the American youth, and Socialism faced with this factor, cannot grow.

"TEDDY, a founding father, spoke briefly about the original concept of the LYL. This was done in order to straighten up the concepts various people had concerning the LEAGUE. 'It was not a 'Youth Arm of the Communist Party,' it was an organization dedicated to the study of Marxism. This was the purpose for which it was formed -- to train the youth in the spirit of Marxism and Leninism.

"JULIE more or less echoed the same sentiments. However, JULIE spoke for a longer period of time. JULIE called himself 'The founding father', and said that in November, 1949 when he had formed the organization he had in mind an organization dedicated to the fight of equal rights, etc. To a great extent, he is not dissatisfied at the results. For during this time we did exist, no one can deny that. If one could name the one reason for the disbandment of the League, JULIE thought it was this. 'We have run against a wall. There is a loss of fresh ideas. Without fresh ideas no organization, no matter how great their membership records, financial reports, or what have you, can keep in operation.'

"HERBIE, another founding father, spoke next. His speech, not very long, nonetheless was in the same vein. HERBIE felt that the one thing we had not lost, which is manifest in this meeting was our integrity, no one could take this away from us.

"FRANK (Baltimore) held the floor next. FRANK felt that a great deal of our trouble, both past and present stemmed from our being stand-patters. Our conceptions of the American youth, were furthermore based on a skimpy knowledge of pre-war (II) youth. We were totally out of touch with the youth, and this was one reason for our failure. To illustrate his point he told a joke, (this having to do with a Jehovah witness who upon being asked why he did not advertise by verbal or visual motions, answered that he would serve God in the manner in which he wanted.).

"ROZ (Chicago) stated in her speech that she felt there was no place for Socialistic growth in the present period. She too posed a problem, what is to become of the youth? Are the youth, interested in Socialism to be put up for grabs, any organization claiming them? This presented a grave problem, which ROZ felt should be settled before we left.

"MARK held the floor a few moments and told about our positive experience in both Student activities and Teenage Work. He spoke glowingly about our teenage club. (The LEAGUE TEENS) and about the Student Group (Wayne) in which positive influence was being made. He further indicated that another group, a teenage club was also being influenced. (MIKE MILLER made mention of attending two meetings of this nameless club). MARK ended by stating that Marxist ideals do have a place in this period, and that each of us should search out new ways to influence and bring to the youth the message of Socialism.

"TEDDY (New York State) had a story to tell. This was the tale of the corpse, who in his will stipulated that he be buried upright behind the wheel of his cadillac. As the car was being lowered into the ground, there was an exchange between attendants. One attendant turned to the other and stated, 'That guy sure knows how to live.' This same thing can be applied to the situation of the Labor Youth League today. TEDDY naturally feels horrible about the disbandment of the LYL, yet he sees no way out.

"JIM JONES spoke up next. He was emotionally distraught so that by the end of his speech he was screeching. He defied the true culprits to be named. They were the real killers of the League. Instead of sticking around when the trouble started, they took off. 'They turned tail and ran, that's what they did.' These culprits were named.

DE 100-18298

" 'LEON WOLFSY and BOB FOGEL that's who they are.' 'Why aren't they around to face the music?' Now visibly shaking, his voice losing its tenor, JIM JONES concluded that he stood for the concepts of Marxism-Leninism and not any G-D-tactics, he believed in being forthright and not running as soon as the trouble started.

"JULIE's answer was short and to the point. Both BOB FOGEL and LEON WOLFSY did not run. Both men were out of the picture long before talk of dissolution had begun. They were not present today because, 'Their field of work, and interests had directed them to other paths of work.'

"Following on the tail of this little incident, after a few minor statements from other delegates was CORA (Wisconsin). She spoke in a gush of words about her two year experience in the LEAGUE. Perhaps she was stating that the LEAGUE had never met her needs and that the LEAGUE had no enthusiasm, and was isolated. I can only summarize this, for she continually coupled her grief with such statements as 'I can talk all day if you let me' or 'Just ask me, I may be wrong, but I'll give you an answer.'

"It was growing late, people were becoming restless. The chair made a motion to adjourn until tomorrow (Sunday). When MARK SOLOMON tried to object, MARV informed MARK that he could not do this unless he challenged the chair. EARL then informed the convention audience that the rule was that in challenging the chair, the challenger would have to state his reasons in five minutes. In truth, I say the chair was challenged by MARK, for MARK made the challenging speech, but in truth the challenge came from MIKE MILLER. MARK's statement in substance stated that he wished to see the convention end this evening as Michigan delegates had a long way to travel by car. MARK felt a night session, say for three hours or so would complete the business. MARV ENGEL,

"stepping aside (speaking merely as a delegate) spoke at length about doing things decently. Sure he knew that the LEAGUE was a thing of the past, but why rush things, remember the people back home had a right to know. A five minute recess was called, and delegates conferred in whispers about the proposal. The proposal was defeated, a rollcall vote being taken. MARV was in the act of adjourning the meeting when another challenge by MIKE MILLER was voiced. MARK SOLOMON again answered the challenge and stated that the Michigan delegation would like to leave as early as possible on Sunday afternoon. This challenge was successful, for the starting time for the Sunday session was moved up from eleven to ten o'clock.

"The meeting was then adjourned.

DE 100-18298

"THE SECOND SESSION - 24 February 1957"

"HANK BERRY" (Chicago) was elected as chairman of this meeting. The discussion of Saturday was more or less continued. The main feeling, one could easily see, was not one so much to infuse life into a 'dead' thing, but one of shock. Since people were out until all hours on Saturday, there was an air of sleepiness about the place. The haggling was at a slower pitch. Some people spoke about positive experiences, others were convinced that the LEAGUE should be buried, but with kindness. Washington was against any thought of dissolution, he doggedly spoke in terms of paying back bills the LEAGUE owed, all was not hopeless, etc.

"JIM JONES posed the question of those stranded between the LEAGUE and the Party. What would happen to them? Where would they drift?

"JUDY TREISMAN held the floor a few moments. She stated that we did not have the answers anymore. Intellectuals were in a crisis today, no longer did they hold that man's inheritance was purely Sociol, but of a Sociol-Biological nature. This theory suits JUDY more than the Socialist doctrines of Marx and Engels. 'We just don't have the answers that's all.'

"EARL DURHAM, looking terribly ill, asked to speak. This type of searching discussion, he felt, could continue indefinitely, we would do well to move on to the other points on the agenda. A financial report was made up by HARVEY on the Subway [REDACTED] $1100.00 is owed to the lawyers. Their offices are at 505 5th Avenue, New York City. Another debt of $450.00 is owed to the leaders for backpay. $150.00 alone is owed ALETHIA LETWIN (no explanation given)... In cash the National Office has some $133.00. Dnd

"It was at this point that HARVEY told the delegation about the attendance of the convention, naming off the seven districts present.

"There was little discussion about this point.

"EARL then read the various resolutions submitted by the various districts. [REDACTED] Bm

The only resolution against the dissolution of the LEAGUE was that of Washington.

"Also read was a document prepared by the National Office. This statement is to be forwarded to all districts and read to all members now that the LEAGUE is dissolved. In substance this document said that no one club or person in this country can call himself by the name of LABOR YOUTH LEAGUE after the date 24th February 1957, except for the explicit purpose of dissolving their particular club. All documents pertaining to LYL business, or personal matters are to be referred to the Law Firm on 5th Avenue with EARL as sole executor. All assets and office equipment must be removed from the premises of the League Headquarters by the 28th of this month. The only individual who can transact business, as yet uncompleted is EARL DURHAM (in the name of the LYL).

"Another shorter resolution reading somewhat as follows 'We resolve that all copies of New Challenge by turned over to the Library of Congress and the New York City Library for the use of future historians' met with great approval.

"There was some discussion about the resolutions.

"HANK BERRY wisely kept the discussion keyed only to the resolutions. Several of the Brooklyn students attempted to infiltrate their speeches with other issues. They spoke about the League on the Campus of City College, and were about to expound further on this subject, but BERRY silenced them. He reminded them of the resolution before the committee and that they could only talk about this specific issue. Silenced on this front, they in turn demanded to know about the statements to the Press. How would they be worded. EARL felt this could be worked out after a vote on the resolution to disband the League was taken. The Brooklyn students wanted to make certain that the press received the story correctly. The true purpose of disbandment was due to Mc Cart yism, the 20th Congress, etc. It was felt that this point was bogging down progress, and that it would be well to argue this out afterwards.

"The chairman, HANK BERRY, felt that the only vote which would be valid was a roll call of votes.

"Chicago? He said. Chicago casts its six votes for dissolv_ment, AL said.

"Wisconsin? The great state of Cheese and McCarthy, Wisconsin casts two vote_for disbandment, MARV said.

"Michigan? Michigan casts three votes for disbandment, one vote for retention. (MIKE MILLER was the odd ball).

"Washington? The Washington delegate cast his three votes for retention of the League.

"Baltimore? FRANK said, 'Nine tenths of Baltimore casts it's vote for disbandment. The remaining one tenth is hit right here (indicating his heart) and votes for retention.

DA 10-18298

"TEDDY from Buffalo also voted for dissolution.

"GEORGE from Ohio voted for dissolution.

"MERTON, voting by proxy, also cast his vote in favor of dissolution.

"New York? JIM JONES got to his feet. 'The Great and Glorious State of New York casts its six votes for dissolution.'

"There were three abstentions. From whom, I don't know, although I feel the three Brooklyn students were the abstainers. In the process it was discovered that New York was allowed only six votes. The totals then are as follows! For dissolution of the LYL: 20, for retention: 4 votes, abstentions: 3.

"MIKE MILLER rose to his feet. The Michigan delegation wished to be excused. CORA from Wisconsin quickly made a motion to adjourn. It was affirmatively voted on, and the meeting ended with the Michigan delegation receiving a merry round of applause.
